

Please keep the local programming option for XM Radio. I see no reason why satellite radio should not be allowed to broadcast local traffic and weather information. Traditional broadcasting can only benefit from competition in this area. The traffic and weather information is very important to those of us in urban areas and is always available when needed rather than having to listen to unwanted programming while waiting to hear the important information.